Dedication

To Dr. Sewell E. Slick, outstanding teacher and noted author, who has commanded our respect and friendship through his unusual leadership, we, the class of 1948, fondly dedicate this Sequelle.

Memories

In Memory

Memories, oh memories: Memories of our college daze which we always want to keep with us. Let's go back through the years to our first here at Clarion. Remember how confused and befuddled we were those first few weeks? Freshmen exams loomed before us to make us thoroughly miserable, and convinced of our inadequacy for the first few days, but we emerged finally only to find ourselves with blackened noses and be-toweled heads caught in the clutches of Freshman Week! Ah, those were the days! There was hardly any male population, but still we had good times. Remember the party we put on for the school, the toboggan rides, 8 o'clocks (they stayed with us), and the wise smirks of the upperclassmen at our follies?

From mere freshmen we evolved into worldly sophomores. That year we laughed at the freshmen and tormented them as we had been tormented. We could smirk now. War was still uppermost in our minds that year. It was with unbelieving amazement we heard of the death of President Roosevelt in the spring. Shortly afterward we learned of the surrender of the Japanese which gave us cause for feelings of untold happiness and rejoicing. That year we welcomed the first veterans back. It was a year of great excitement and high hopes for the future!

As juniors we saw a great change in our college life. War was over and our enrollment had increased by great bounds. We met many new people and made many new friends. Football came into existence again as one of our college sports, as did wrestling. Remember the dances we went to that year? The Homecoming Dance and the Christmas Dance were great affairs which everyone enjoyed, as were the dances sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic Council and the Inter-Fraternity Council. We watched the seniors trembling in an agony of fear before their first day of student teaching and firmly decided we would never let ourselves fall into such a condition when it came to be our turn. Yes, our junior year was by far the most normal, enjoyable year so far.

And now comes the last chapter of our book. We are seniors now. It is with regret we say it. Oh, we have loudly stated how happy we would be to "get out" but now that it is time we are not so eager. This has been a wonderful year. Oh, how we dreaded that day when we would face those "uplifted faces shining with great eagerness to learn what we had to teach!" In spite of ourselves we managed to get through that day and since then have slaved to become efficient and able at this job of teaching. This year we will take that long march from Seminary to the Chapel to graduate from dear old Alma Mater. We will take with us many high ideals and plans for our future years. Let us hope we will find a place for ourselves in this world where we will be as happy and successful as possible.

And now it is time to say farewell to all of you we leave behind. We want you to know how deeply we appreciate your friendship and the fine times we have all had here at college with you. To you, the faculty we wish to express our gratitude for your guidance and help. To you we owe a great deal for any success we may have.

Faculty

Dr. Chandler's Message

You, the class of 1948, are graduating at a most auspicious time. Never has there been a period when openings were so plentiful. Should one not secure the kind of teaching position desired, places in other fields are open at good salaries.

Your years in college have been exciting ones for the world in general. You matriculated during the greatest war in history, the issues of which have not yet been settled. You are facing a period that bids fair to continue this tempo. Atomic bombs are said to be a reality. Planes have flown at supersonic speed. We are witnessing the greatest industrial production any nation has ever achieved. Your graduation, an important event in your life, comes during the most stimulating time in the world's history.

I wish for each of you a happy and successful future. May you always regard Clarion as a source of inspiration in the challenging times ahead.

Seniors

As seniors we recall many vivid memories of four happy, unforgettable years, some spent joyously, some in sadness, which all go together to make our farewell one of gayety and tears.

In our freshmen year, men on campus were a scarce item, but still undaunted we had our fun and enjoyed new found college life to its fullest. The parties which we sponsored were the highlights of the year. At these parties we saw the faculty members kind, understanding, and full of fun.

The veterans took over the campus in '46; needless to say this contributed to our social life. Fraternities appeared again and "rushing" began with a bang! We thrilled to our first college formals.

Time does not erase the memory of our junior year. More students! Penn State freshmen moved in and our campus was teeming with activity—football, baseball, basketball, wrestling, and a gay whirl of dances.

Starting in '48 we wended our way to the various centers of student teaching. Oh, how we shook when we taught our first class! As time went by we became accustomed to our daily walk and we were nervous no longer when we faced the critic teachers and pupils.

Memories, memories, memories.

As minutes fleet and hours pass by,
Memory of all this shall never die.

Juniors

Three years have passed and now we juniors look into the crystal ball to see ourselves returning next fall as seniors.

When we glance into the past we recall sixty-four freshmen who came to C.S.T.C. in 1945, green and scared stiff. Time has flown and now we see Clarion as our old tramping ground.

The highlight of our junior year was our sponsoring the Home Coming Day decoration on November first.

We've worked hard, played hard, and loved every minute of it!

Poem

If we were seniors, we could be
Sentimental gracefully.
We'd shed sad tears for all that's past
And hope the memories would last.

We'd wave farewell to dear old Sem.,
To stupid jokes, and those of Clem;
We'd drink a toast to those who'll come—
Wish them well, and wish them fun.

But as it is, we must remain
And try to earn our way to fame.
Still we're e'er consoled by the thought:
That has been was not for nought.

Next year we'll shed that grateful tear—
And as the underclassmen leer;
Now we're juniors, "Next!" on the list
A fight hard won, with doubled fist.

"Lead on MacDuff!" as Shakespeare said
And, in case that's all you've read,
To you below, we express gloat
Someone else is in our boat.

Farewell to that which is behind—
In Fall of '48 we find—
Confetti! Papers! We're almost out!

For our November meeting Sarah Gibson discussed "Race Problems in the School". In the latter part of December this group enjoyed the privilege of entertaining the children of Kindergarten and first grade with a Christmas party.

International Relations Club

Every citizen in this country should be interested in current affairs of the world. This is especially true when it is a recognized fact that the United States of America is a leading world power, and a great influence on affairs in other countries. If you feel that you would like to know more about the important topics of the day, then the International Relations Club is the club that will be best for you. This semester the members discussed openly the pros and cons of the subjects which made the daily headlines. Some of these argument-provoking ideas were: The Marshall Plan, The Truman Doctrine, The Taft-Hartley Bill, Puerto Rican Immigration, and U. S. and Russian Relations.

We members have another side to our natures that can only be satisfied by such things as parties, weiner roasts, toboggan rides. Our main social event of this year was a weiner roast held at Rankin's Grove one crisp October evening. One of the highlights of the evening was the music furnished by Joe Cappelli.

We would like to express our gratitude to our advisor, Mr. Kuhner, who has given his help and advice whenever we needed it. This year we have stressed those memories which all of us will long cherish. We have tried to include them all for you and it is our hope that you will enjoy remembering your college days whenever you leaf through the 1948 Sequelle in the years to come.

Women's Athletic Council

W.A.C., supervised by Miss Spaller, is composed of the best women athletes on the campus. Preliminary membership requirements are: participation in three intermural activities each year, including one individual tournament; an average of "c" or better in academic work; and the officiation of various intermural sports. If girls meeting these requirements are judged by the council to be outstanding for leadership and sportsmanship, they are accepted as members of W.A.C.

The purpose of the W.A.C. is to stimulate the interest of the entire student body in athletics and recreational activities, and to encourage the spirit of good sportsmanship.

The Leaders Club, a new organization on the campus this year, provides excellent training—not compulsory—for prospective W.A.C. members.

New Members are: Nancy Doverspike, Thelma Jackson, Mary Longiotti, Dorothy Jean Rishell, and Rose Marie Stefanic.

Old members are: Martha Helmintoller, who has acted as chairman of the council for two years; Kathleen Hobbs, Jean Ferguson, Betty Underwood and Mary K. Schierberl.

Theta Alpha Lambda

We have participated in several activities this year, the first being a shower for Nellie Nan Eschelman. Our Bride Party began in the Training School where games were played; then we went to Mrs. Hoyt's home for refreshments. Mrs. Hoyt is one of our patronesses...

Two of our members graduated at mid-term and are now holding positions. We want to express our pride in them and our respect for their accomplishment. The members are Lois Pontius, now a public librarian in Long Beach, New York, and Alice Zacherl, who is teaching in Smithport, Pa.

Welcome to Miss Skaggs, who has become our faculty sponsor. Mrs. Slick, our former sponsor, is now a patroness.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

The main event of our Delta Sigma year was our very successful rush party. Done in a pirate mood, with swords, and pirate chests, and skeletons, it netted us twenty-four of the nicest rushees imaginable. Audrey Walls, our rush chairman, and Erla Brock, in charge of decoration, did superlative jobs. The food committee headed by Marty Mitchell was equally efficient in the planning and serving of a delicious spaghetti and Italian bread dinner.

Important too, was our initiation of four town girls: Lois George, Dorothy Jean Rishell, Helen Furlong, and Nancy Doverspike, and one dormitory girl, Irma Messler. Miss Spaller, our charming and vivacious sponsor, was initiated earlier in the year.

Our plans for the year include many outside activities such as: toboggan parties, camping parties at Cook's Forest, and small sorority parties.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Fifty years of successful fraternity life as a social sorority is being celebrated by Sigma Sigma Sigma this year. From its beginning in 1898 the sorority has increased to forty-three chapters. Our anniversary convention, whose theme was "Going Home to Virginia", was held in the old colonial capital of Williamsburg on July. It was attended by over two hundred persons among whom were two Alpha Pi's, Jeanne Beatty and Mary Lou Johnston. Convention ideas and personalities have encouraged and inspired much of our work this year.

Shortly after school opened in September we initiated six girls: Martha Lou Glover, Phyllis Slaughenhaupt, Rose Marie Stefanic, Catherine Stewart, Helen Toth and Nancy Zimmerman.

In October our beloved past president, Mabel Lee Walton, visited us in the interest of Inter-Fraternity work. The highlight of her visit was a tea given by Mary Kay Banner. We are eagerly awaiting another promised visit from our president in May.

Some of our varied activities have been: decorating the balcony on the front of Becht Hall for Homecoming, sponsoring a Saturday night dance in the gym, selling Christmas seals in the dormitory, and entertaining two of our recently married members.

The theme of our rush party centered around the old west with its ranches, saloons, can-can dancers and holdups. The girls who chose Sigma Sigma Sigma were: Elinor Walley, Mary Jane Green, Jeanne Stalder, Shirley Johnson, Honore Bell, Fern Botzer, Joyce Kapp, Jean Fink, Margaret Weaver, Freda Wilson and Evalyn Henry. Pledging which was held the 26th of January was followed by a party given in honor of the new girls.

Spring activities include a week-end at Cook's Forest, the Pan-Hellenic Dance, a Founder's Day Banquet and a Farewell Party for the graduating girls who are: Violet Vukoslavich, Joyce Simpson, Mary Alice Miller, Betty Underwood, Ellen Andrews and Jean Ferguson.

I think that I shall never see
A girl refuse a meal that's free;
A girl who doesn't ever wear
A mess of doodads in her hair;
A girl with crimson mouth unblest
By Lounge-Lizard Lipstick
(it stands the test);
A girl who thinks not of self all day,
And prefers to walk to matinee;
For girls are loved by fools like me
'Cause who in heck would kiss a tree?

Sigma Tau Gamma

Sigma Tau Gamma, national social fraternity, is new at Clarion, the Alpha Zeta Chapter having been formed in May, 1946. The national fraternity was organized by a local fraternity, Zeta Eta Phi.

On January 7, 1948, twenty-six new members were initiated into the fraternity. The initiation ceremony was held following a banquet at the Underwood Hotel in Knox, Pa. The addition of these members brought the active membership to forty-two.

A new faculty member, Mr. Lewis of the mathematics department, was formally initiated into the fraternity during his first semester. Mr. Lewis hails from Maryland, but has spent much of his life in Pennsylvania. He did his undergraduate at East Stroudsburg S.T.C. His graduate work was done in mathematics at Bucknell and the University of Pittsburgh.

A Providence Conclave was held in Clarion this year. The meeting was presided over by the Province Archon, F.M. Campbell.

Representatives from Buffalo, N. Y., Clarion, Indiana S.T.C., Kent State University, Ohio, Fairmont, S.T.C., W. Va. were present to discuss province problems.

Alpha Gamma Phi

The 1947-1948 term was a banner one for the Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity. The largest fraternity on campus last year, the Alpha Gamm's possessed a spirit that really started all the sorority and fraternity activity that is now in evidence.

The pledge's informal initiation was one of the most amusing ever held at Clarion. The entire student body enjoyed the pledge's singing in front of Beccht Hall at 10:00 o'clock one night. The other stunt chosen for each pledge drew the attention and interest of everyone.

The Alpha Gamma Phi's had their annual banquet at Hotel Underwood in Knox on the nineteenth of November. Dr. P. G. Chandler gave the main address of the evening. Following the banquet eighteen pledges were initiated into the fraternity. The new fraternity pins arrived just in time for second semester rushing.

A formal spring dance will be held early in the spring for the members, and we also look forward to minor activities at Cook's Forest.

Alpha Phi Alpha

The Alpha Phis who came back this year were a grand bunch, but it was decided that more Alpha Phis could be even more fun. With this end in mind the old members diligently applied themselves, and came forth with one of the most successful "rush" parties ever held at Clarion. This party resulted in the pledging of thirty-two new men to Alpha Phi Alpha. These men were then informally initiated at Camp Coffman. Both the old and new members will long remember this event.

As the second semester opened the Alpha Phis enjoyed a fun-packed week-end at Cook's Forest. Plans were also laid for the big May "hop" which will include a banquet at the Underwood Hotel in Knox, followed by a "formal" at the Rsss Memorial Library.

"The 1947 Football Season"

After some three odd weeks of training rituals, Clarion's "Golden Eagles" Football Squad opened the 1947 Campaign by journeying to Edinboro Saturday, October 4. The game was played on a beautiful, sunny day and the only "bone of contention" was a 7-6 loss to the "Red Raiders" from Edinboro. "Dame Fortune" seemed to laugh in the face of Clarion and the "Golden Avalanche" really never hit high gear.

With the first game under their belt, Coach Tippin's lads appeared a vastly improved club as they battled a powerful Bloomsburg eleven to a standstill, even though ending on the short side of a 11-7 count. The margin of victory hinged on two safeties garnered by the down-state congregation. Once again the Fates turned "thumbs down" on the Eagles, as what could have been a winning touchdown was nullified by an off-side penalty.

Thiel's cocky "Tom-Cat's" trundled into town the following Saturday and were promptly man-handled by our boys to the tune of 19-6.

Battisti, a one-man ball club the year previous, was kept bottled up thruout the entire afternoon and Scarantine scored twice and Whisner once in leading the "Golden Eagles" to victory. Harlacher, Mason and Lignelli led the forward wall in out-charging Stoeber's charges.

Clarion next challenged the California "Vulcans" at California, on the 25th of October, but hampered by fumbles returned home with a 25-7 deficit. The Pittsburgh District team, smarting from two earlier lickings, "turned on the heat" at Clarion's expense. Poor ball handling led to the defeat and placed the Golden Eagles constantly in the hole. The "College on the Hill" scored its lone tally when Thomas carried a pass over the final chalk-stripe.

"Homecoming" and Indiana did not run true to form and the visitors, led by Russ Carlson and Company, definitely spoiled the event for the Students, Alumni and all concerned. Fielding a strong club, Indiana ran up a total of 38 points, the highest number recorded against the Eagles all season. Although the fighting spirit was at a high pitch, the scoring punch could not keep pace with the Indianians.

Bethany College of West Virginia, dark skies and a muddy field, was the setting for the next encounter and Al Askey's dash to pay dirt was the only one achieved all day long and the "Golden Avalanche" returned to the locker room with a well-observed 6-0 triumph.

The final game of the campaign was scheduled with Alliance under the lights at Erie' Academy Stadium, and the curtain was rung down with a heart-breaking 12-7 loss to the Polish from Cambridge Springs. Once again the Chips seemed stacked against us and several scoring opportunities vanished, ghost-like, in thin air.

The 1947 Season showed a total of 2 Wins as compared with 5 Defeats in 7 Games, but this is definitely a shrouded picture of the true facts, for with a few "breaks" when they were needed the most, the totals could have been practically reversed.

Each and every member of the Squad should be acclaimed for his part in playing the game, win, lose, or draw. But, in checking the various games, and choosing the outstanding performers throughout the Season, we would conclude that the brightest of the "shining lights" in the Back-field were Scarantine, Whisner, Askey, Thomas and Luvinson. The forward wall was led consistently by such stalwarts as Lignelli, Harlacher, Malacarne, Mason, Muth, Zelechowski and Robinson.

Jim Wiberg and Paul Caruso served as capable Team Managers and Jerry Moore, Tom Carnahan and Jim Moore lent valuable aid as Coach Tippin's Assistants and Scouts.

Clarion's "Golden Eagle" Basketeers compiled one of the outstanding records of the State Teacher's College ranks during the 1947-48 season. The Tippinmen won nine clear-cut victories, while dropping five, over a short season schedule. Two of these five defeats were by the slim margin of one bucket, while two more were of the three point variety. The Polish lads of Alliance pinned the only actual lambasting on our Cage troop.

The College "on the Hill" has right to be mighty proud of its smooth Court quintet, especially one Halley Willison. He attained a feat, never accomplished in College History before, by being chosen on the First-String All-State Teacher's College Team. Halley, definitely an outstanding and shining luminary, was ably supported up front by Cece Willoughby, one of the State's leading point producers. Bill Casper was constantly present when the "chips were down" and served as a steady play-maker. "Ole Miss" Burnsed gobbled up more than his share of those rebounds under the board and George Derk played an extremely aggressive floor game. Amos Bartoli, Bill Klaus and Russ Whitford served capably in relief roles for this usual strating Brigade.

Clarion's nine showed extraordinary power on offense at times with such clubbers as Currey, Kovalyak, "Turk" Johnson, Webster, and Malacarne propelling long balls. Fine defensive play was turned in by Hoffman, King, and Kelley. The bulk of the pitching chores rested on "Lefty" Rhodes and Eddie Wilson, with the big winner being Bob Zelechoski who served very efficiently in winning relief roles.

Wrestling

The 1947-1948 Wrestling Season, according to many observers, would be considered rather unsuccessful, but to those "in the know" it would be approached with an entirely opposite outlook. The number of matches on the winning side of the ledger were non-existent, but the experienced garnered therein was invaluable.

Upon the resignation of Coach Jerry Moore, at mid-semester, Frank Lignelli assumed the leadership of the matmen and proved outstanding both as a wrestler and as a coach. With a "green" and inexperienced team to work with, and a limited amount of time, he produced noticeable results and progress. Although meeting high calibre competition the members of the squad never lacked "spirit" and fight. Next season can be looked forward to with keen anticipation and a reversal of results.

Frank Lignelli was definitely the "shining light" of the group and in a total of seven matches was victorious on four occasions. The three matches he dropped were of the decision variety and of a doubtful nature at that. Nile Coon, Helbling, Verbosky and Miller showed true promise and Knepp Osipov, Pecora and the Serene boys should develop with experience.

The seven matches included two with the powerful Lock Havenites, two with the strong Edinboro squad and a pair with Indiana. Millersville was encountered but once and displayed an outstanding brand of wrestling.

First Row—Larimer, Lignelli, Flath, Coon, Verbosky.
Second Row—J. Moore, Martin, Helbling, Gargano, Pecora, Stonis, Knepp, Hamme.

Coaching Staff

With Coach Waldo S. Tippin at the head of our coaching staff for the past year, and with a number of able assistants, we can say that the resulting teams have racked up a number of welcome and hard earned wins in all sports.

Assisting Coach Tippin in football we had Gerald A. Moore, Thomas A. Carnahan, and James Moore.

Gerald A. Moore assisted in the backfield coaching of the Golden Eagles just as he did the previous year.

Thomas A. Carnahan was a large factor in determining the strength of our forward wall last season just as he did the preceding year.

James Moore, our acting dean of instruction, was valuable to Coach Tippin as a line coach and also by scouting the competition which came to us throughout the season.

This year we have with us a new member on our athletic coaching staff. Bruce H. Dinsmore who is handling the intra-mural program throughout the year. He comes to us from Indiana Teachers College. Additional duties are the teaching of Biological Science I and II, Hygiene and physical education, and Algebra. His schedule is one which, we feel sure, will keep him busy.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Another year, another Sequelle. This year the task of its compilation has been ours. It has not only been an honor to be on the 1948 Sequelle Staff, but it has been an experience which we will long remember. We have enjoyed working together, planning together, and, yes, even worrying together.

As editor I would like to express my deep appreciation and gratitude for the never failing loyalty of my staff. Their willingness to put out the very best year-book possible under the circumstances and their truly sincere attitude in their work has made me extremely proud to work with them. I would also like to thank those not on the staff, but who have given their whole-hearted help whenever asked.
